

Chipping in for hospice

Keen golfers have raised more than $8500 for a local charity.

One hundred people teed off at North Shore Golf club to help raise funds for North Shore Hospice.

The North Shore-based sector of Business Networking International organised the day with SANZ Golf.

More than 20 people sponsored holes and donated prizes for an auction.

President of BNI Millennium Chapter, based in Albany, Steve Walsh says they had an extraordinary turnout.

A cheque for more than $8500 was presented to the hospice on July 2.
